Desillusion

Blurs of beauty have passed me by
Scenes have flashed inside my mind
Remembered places in memory alive
Forever moving onwardAn endless space within you are Black hopeless hole feelings are sparse
Seems your goal is gone devotion wanders far
Take a look back on your pastSing it, happiness a feeling
So far surreal
Joy just a reflection
Of the fear you still feelHappiness a feeling
So far surreal
Joy just a reflection
Of the fear you still feelAn aimless search through latent realms
The warmth is lost cold beings dead
Affection fatal love bonded to a bed
Release your inner selfTime is sacred until it ends
Never to stop so cleanse your head
Relax in peace, I'll be happily content
Waiting to fulfill your fate, your fateHappiness a feeling
So far surreal
Joy just a reflection
Of the fear you still feelHappiness a feeling
So far surreal
Joy just a reflection
Of the fear that you still feelJoy just a reflection
Of the fear that you still feelThe conclusion, provoke the end don't wait
Resolution, do it now rearrange
Discontinue, and make the change
