No One Will

Seapony

How much can one learn from love?
How much can two living by living like we do?
So much I get from your touch
The memories have concord me
Got me calling out to youIn my way no one will, no one will Appreciate the way you move
The way you step and your attitude
What I say no one will, no one will Take a dive in the deepest part
To swallow your flow and nectarWe laugh, we laugh, we laugh when we love, when we love, ooohh
Said we laugh, we laugh the laughter is inside our love yeah
So tell me
How much can two learn from pain?
Can one explanation derail the destination?Well, maybe I'm insane
But don't you hold it against me girl
I'm a lunatic with conviction
I'd said no one will, no one will, no one will Appreciate everything you are
Nurture you and your open heartWhat I say no one will, no one will Give you all you want and more
Help you find what you're looking for
We laughed, we laughed, we loved we lovedWhen I touch you, when I think about how I wanna touch you
It feels like I have so much to look forward to
And, that's all I ever wanna feel
That's all I ever need to feel
To be without it
It's too much, to be without it
