

Where No Eagles Fly

Julian Casablancas+The Voidz

please, come on babe, they'll end up all confused, what's the point of telling people if they won't use it? fly on the wall, bird of prey in the mall it's the eye in the sky, where no eagles fly meat, predators eat meat.
predators eat meat. ceremony or a speech, in a church or on a beach, predators eat. the wolf will cry sheep as they take him away, we plot in our sleep but follow orders all day the rhythm is for you but the song is for me, the meaning might be secret but the melody is free meat,
predators eat meat.
predators eat meat. let all my big dreams sink in,
no one to enjoy it with.
oblivious... stay oblivious, why can you not be more like me?
hiding in a nearby tree. business, business, i forget, pray for predators i guess uh-oh, uh-oh, here we go, all our future's thru that door future's come to this, everybody cheats i guess let's go down to mexico, 'there's a couple guys i know' all our future's come to this, i don't want my friends to know all our future's come to this, i don't want our friends
