In My Life

Bette Midler

There are places I remember All my life, though some have changed Some forever, not for better And some have gone, and some remainAll these places have their moments With lovers and friends I still can't recall Some are dead and some are living In my life I love them allBut of all these friends and lovers There is no one compares with you And these memories lose their meaning When I think of love as something newThough I know I'll never ever lose affection For people and things that went before I know I'll often stop and think about them In my life I love you more Though I know I'll never ever lose affection For people and things that went before I know I'll often stop and think of them But in my life I loved you moreI love you more I love you more
