

Respect

Train

For reasons I don't know I treated you so cold
I wish I had those times again
'Cause something that you said keeps
Ringing in my head
Someday you're gonna wanna come back
And you're gonna wanna treat me fine Everybody needs a little respect
Everybody needs a little time
Everybody needs a little respect
Everybody needs a little I watched me push you down in dreams I had of you
And all I remember about those days is
I would run around thinking that you'd be alright
But you lost your light along the way
And oh, you were right about the things I'd say
'Cause if I had it back again I know I would, you know I'd treat you kind Everybody needs a little respect
Everybody needs a little time
Everybody needs a little respect
Everybody needs a little time Everybody got to have somebody
Everybody got to have someone And all I ever wanted from this play
Was someone to talk to when I get down
It seems you get the things you give along the way
Now all I need is one more chance to make you feel like hanging round Everybody needs a little Everybody needs a little
Everybody needs a little respect
Everybody needs a little time Everybody needs a little respect
Everybody needs a little time
Everybody
Everybody got to have someone
