The Sweetest Thing

U2

I am getting ready for my lover
He is coming home to me tomorrow night
I am getting ready for no other
He is the sunshine, the moonlight of my life
He has never had to disappoint me
He was the sweetest thing, the neatest thing in my life
I am getting ready for my lover
He is the sunshine, the moonlight of my life
It's only fair that you be there with me and hold my hand
It's only fair that you be there with me and understand
It's only fair if you really dare to hold my hand
It's only fair that you be there with me
Remember, remember, remember, remember, remember, I'd lied
I remember sweetness in my childhood
It was the sweetest time, the world was mine, understood
I remember sweetness in my mother
She did the best she could, she always would for us
Don't you ever have to disappoint me
It's only fair that you be there with me and hold my hand
It's only fair that you be there with me and understand
It's only fair, if you really dare to hold my hand
It's only fair that you be there with me
Remember, remember, remember, I'd lied
The sweetest thing, you are
The sweetest thing
