The Black Swan

Sounda

Whoa, far beyond the reach of prediction
Lies a promise of a break in the code
And the truth untold
Just before the black swan arises
The horizon will be invisible
As the events unfold, unfold, oh no
The explosion fathers away
Consequence will take to the grave
To the grave, take to the grave
Take to the grave
Far beyond the realm of perception
Our assumptions dissipate in the flood
And in turn destroyed
Everything that seems to be constant
Shifts direction and divides what we know
Everything that we hold so close
The explosion fathers away
(The explosion fathers away)
Consequence will take to the grave
(Take to our graves)

What we'll never anticipate
(What we'll never anticipate)
Consequence will take to the grave
To the grave, take to the grave
Take to the grave, to the grave
To the grave
Yeah, unexpected the impact of once it come
Everlasting the fall that will carry on
Waiting quietly, be on the hexagon
To unravel the cannon bearing the one
The explosion fathers away
(The explosion fathers away)
Consequence will take to the grave
(Take to our graves)
What we'll never anticipate
(What we'll never anticipate)
Consequence will take to the grave
To the grave, take to the grave

Take to the grave, to the grave
To the grave
