Divinations

String Tribute Players

It's gone away, it's gone away, it's gone for good
And the spirit's shouting come Karelia
A primitive child of brilliant light, her magnet of wisdom is pulling
Pulling faster, the fabrics of time
No escape, binding spirits
No escape, trapped in time and space
Rabid descendants, a wormhole is entered
The sin of calypso surrounds me
The fire's dancing in the silvery sea of breath

Black rune, it directs me
Summoning the soul of the specter
No escape, binding spirits
No escape, trapped in time and space
Fire in the eye reminiscing majesty
No escape, binding spirits
No escape, trapped in time and space
Fire in the eye reminiscing majesty
