White Lies

I See Stars

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be thereYou said you'd be there 'til the bitter end
Your voice feels bitter now
The world I'm fighting for just plays pretend
I'm surrendering
I'm surrendering
I'm surrendering
Way too long, way too long
Way too long, way too longI'm not gonna turn my head
You play the part I'm holding out my hands
Out of sight, out of mind, out of sight
I feel you in the air. You haunt me everywhere
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be thereWhite lies
You do this every time
We fall in familiar places
Drift apart and don't know why
Breaths we take, like breaths we take
You're gone. Gone
Breaths we take, like breaths we take
You're gone. You play the part I'm holding out my handsWay too long, way too long Way too long, way too longYou said you'd be there 'til the bitter end
Your voice is bitter now
The world I'm fighting for just plays pretend
I'm surrenderingWhite lies
You do this every time
We fall in familiar places
Drift apart and don't know why
Breaths we take, like breaths we take
You're gone. Gone
Breaths we take, like breaths we take
You're gone. You are the reason for the life I liveYou said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be-be there, be there
