

White Lies

I See Stars

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there
You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there You said you'd be there 'til the bitter end

Your voice feels bitter now

The world I'm fighting for just plays pretend

I'm surrendering

I'm surrendering

I'm surrendering

Way too long, way too long

Way too long, way too long I'm not gonna turn my head

You play the part I'm holding out my hands

Out of sight, out of mind, out of sight

I feel you in the air. You haunt me everywhere

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there White lies

You do this every time

We fall in familiar places

Drift apart and don't know why

Breaths we take, like breaths we take

You're gone. Gone

Breaths we take, like breaths we take

You're gone. You play the part I'm holding out my hands Way too long, way too long

Way too long, way too long You said you'd be there 'til the bitter end

Your voice is bitter now

The world I'm fighting for just plays pretend

I'm surrendering White lies

You do this every time

We fall in familiar places

Drift apart and don't know why

Breaths we take, like breaths we take

You're gone. Gone

Breaths we take, like breaths we take

You're gone. You are the reason for the life I live You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there

You said you'd be there, be-be-be-be there, be there
