Roses On White Lace (Alice Cooper cover)

Arsis

I saw you wedding gown
The prettiest dress
I came into the room that night
And made such a mess
In my own way, I lovingly kiss the bride
With your ring in your hand
Your eyes and your mouth open wideIn my eyes
Blood drops look like roses on white lace
They won't wash away
In my mind they're roses on white lace
Straight from the heart
So dead upon the bedYou hurt me in the deepest way

I'm crippled inside
I took your evil skin away

It's all cut and dry

I saw you tonight and carefully took your hand

With some smears on my cheeks

I knew that you would understandIn my eyes

Blood drops look like roses on white lace

They won't wash away

In my mind they're roses on white lace

Straight from the heart

So dead upon the bed, still searching for your headThey're never gonna find your face

It's hidden away

I found a very special place for you used to play

In my own way, I lovingly kiss the bride

With your ring in your hand

Your eyes and your mouth open wideIn my eyes

Blood drops look like roses on white lace

They won't wash away

In my mind they're roses on white lace

Straight from the heart

Blood drops look like roses on white lace

Crimson and sweet, stained on the sheetRoses on white lace, pretty in red, dripping and wet Roses on white lace, spilled on the walls, dark in the hall
