

Lilian

Kazaki

Oh, Lilian
Look what you've done
You've stripped my heart
Ripped it apart
In the name of fun Oh, Lilian
I'm a poor man's son
And precious jewels
Weren't found in schools
Where I came from Pain and misery
Always hit the spot
Knowing you can't lose
What you haven't got Oh, Lilian
I should have run
I should have known
Each dress you own
Is a loaded gun Oh, Lilian Oh, Lilian
I need protection
I hear your voice
And any choice
I had is gone Oh, Lilian
Once I begun
I couldn't stop
'Til every drop
Of blood was sung Pain and misery
Always hit the spot
Knowing you can't lose
What you haven't got Oh, Lilian
Look what you've done
You stripped my heart
Ripped it apart
In the name of fun Oh, Lilian
Oh, Lilian
Oh, Lilian
Oh, Lilian
