

Dead End

In Flames

Save all your prayers
I think we lost today
There's no morning after
No-one's around to blame I'm not afraid to bleed
But I won't do it for you
A star among hypocrites
The melody of our time So say goodbye
To the world
We're the dead
That walk the earth Scream your lungs out
Wait for laughter
You don't have to wait forever
Where's the next disaster? What decides when You've lost the war?
When the first man falls
Or when they erased it all We're too numb to feel
The downfall starts right here
Hold your breath and swim
Swallowed by life's tear In times of make believe
No-one really seems to care
Maybe I should care less
'Cause I will die too So say goodbye
To the world
We're the dead
That walk the earth Scream your lungs out
Wait for laughter
You don't have to wait forever
Where's the next disaster? What will it take
For us to realize?
The more we provoke
Winter will come twice Save all your prayers
I think we lost today
There's no morning after
No-one's around to blame Scream your lungs out
Wait for laughter
You don't have to wait forever
Where's the next disaster? Scream your lungs out
Wait for laughter
You don't have to wait forever

Where's the next disaster?
