

Game Over

Destiny's Child

Six foot, dark skin damn baby you got me open
Your heart is so big buy anything Kelly be wantin'
Your just God send, ooh the way you be talkin'
It's got my attention I ain't do nothin' but listenin'
Ain't no one like you, that makes me wanna
Kiss like you nobody ever could handle this
Like you for anybody askin'
The game is over ain't no touch like you
That makes me wanna touch like you
Nobody ever could handle this like you
For anybody askin' the game is over
My boy is so hood he does that thing to me
So good his mindset, so complex, you never think his from the projects
He is my best friend perfect fit for a husband
His swagger his confidence that's got his lil' momma's mind bent
Thank God
You sent him to save me
(My joy, oh my joy)
His smile is so amazing
(My heart is open for the taking)
Ain't no one like you, that makes me wanna
Kiss like you nobody ever could handle this
Like you for anybody askin'
The game is over ain't no touch like you
That makes me wanna touch like you
Nobody ever could handle this like you
For anybody askin' the game is over
Ain't no one like you, that makes me wanna
Kiss like you nobody ever could handle this
Like you for anybody askin'
The game is over ain't no touch like you
That makes me wanna touch like you
Nobody ever could handle this like you
For anybody askin' the game is over
Ooh my man, my man, he does whatever it takes
To satisfy me, this man, this man
He knows me inside out my wants and my needs
His ways are so unique, the way he protects me
No price, no ring no house, no matieral thing

Could ever take him from me ain't no one like you

Ain't no one like you

Ain't no one like you, that makes me wanna

Kiss like you nobody ever could handle this

Like you for anybody askin'

The game is over ain't no touch like you

That makes me wanna touch like you

Nobody ever could handle this like you

For anybody askin' the game is over

Ain't no one like you, that makes me wanna

Kiss like you nobody ever could handle this

Like you for anybody askin'

The game is over ain't no touch like you

That makes me wanna touch like you

Nobody ever could handle this like you

For anybody askin' the game is over
