Reflect

Tomorrows Bad Seeds

Wake up feelin empty from last night you threw your feelings away Take a good look in the mirror are you stuck here with the person you see And if you're havin doubts then wash your face and make sure your hands are clean Cause at the bottom of the bottle's not the answer but the problem you'll see

What makes you think, what makes you think you're so damn powerful, you're not invincible, noo
What makes you think, what makes you think
you're indestructible, no one's that powerful, noo

Addicted to the pain, you pop another one and swallow your pride Lookin for a quick fix to relax your mind set your feelings aside Living in the fast lane is a gamble when you're playing for keeps Hold your head and wonder, so confused you can't remember a thing

Its happening so fast, make no mistakes for the price you will pay Focus on the present for tomorrow could be taken away

What makes you think, what makes you think
you're so damn powerful, you're not invincible, noo
What makes you think, what makes you think
you're indestructible, no one's that powerful, noo

You always wanting more Until you hit the floor

What makes you think, what makes you think
you're so damn powerful, you're not invincible, noo
What makes you think, what makes you think
you're indestructible, no one's that powerful, noo
