Lifer

Take another hit and it makes me big again
In, out around my head again
Here and I'm never givin' up
'Cause I don't wanna leave todayMy situation declines
The tension rises above
Everything I seeLet it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything nowOne more hit and I forget again
Now I'm on my back again
Down and I'm not gettin' up
'Cause I don't wanna move todayMy motivation declines
The temperature rises above
Everything I feelLet it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everythingLet it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything nowYou've seen this happen before
You know, it's not a mistake
If you've seen this before you'll see it again
You fell asleep when I was awakeYou left me blind, left behind
When all I feel is hate
And all I hate
All I've hatedLet it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everythingLet it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it

Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything nowYou can't have everything now
You can't
