

Somewhere So Far

Bonsai Nation

Somewhere so far from where the world is not so please
Discomfort dies and drifts beyond my reach
I'm almost home, my troubles have to hide
They will not find me in the ever-soothing tide
Somewhere less sure, I've forgotten who you were
Promise nothing, ooh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

When we go to California
The path before ya is your company
And when we go to California
I have to warn ya, it's more than palm trees, yeah

Away from here is what dissipates my fears
Heavy hammers fall and complicate my years
I'm almost home, my troubles have to hide
They will not find me in the ever-soothing tide
Somewhere less sure I've forgotten who you were
In harmony, ooh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

When we go to California
The path before ya is your company
And when we go to California
I have to warn ya, it's more than palm trees, yeah

When we go to California
The path before ya is your company
And when we go to California
I have to warn ya, it's more than palm trees
When we go to California
I have to warn ya, it's where I'd rather be, yeah

Lyrics submitted by Bonsai Nation.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>