

Dominique

Debbie Reynolds

Dominique, nique, nique, I will tell of Dominique
His goodness to acclaim
And I pray the song I sing
With some simple pleasure bring
That the world shall know His name

I will tell of Dominique
As I sing this little song
And when I sing the chorus
All the world will sing along

Dominique, nique, nique, It was good St. Dominique
He lived for you and me
From the labors long ago
Came a better world I know
And His love shall always be

Though I'm poor, said Dominique
As he spoke unto the Lord
I will be your humble servant
And Your love is my reward

Dominique, nique, nique, I will follow Dominique
His burdens will I share
For his courage will I pray
His teachings to obey
His words shall be my prayer

By the kindness of His heart
And the labor of His hand
He brought love and understanding
As he wandered through the land

Dominique, nique, nique, I will tell of Dominique
His goodness to acclaim
And I pray this song I sing
Will some simple pleasure bring
While the world shall know His name

Dominique, the mighty warrior

Was a soldier of the Lord
His armor was devotion
And the gospel was his sword

Dominique, nique, nique, It was good St. Dominique
He lived for you and me
From His labors long ago
Came a better world I know
And His love shall always be

To the blazing heat of summer
And the chill of winter snow
I will follow Dominique
In His footsteps I will go

Dominique, nique, nique, I will follow Dominique
His goodness will I share
For his courage will I pray
His teachings to obey
His words shall be my prayer
