

I Backslide on Friday

Paul Thorn

Deep down I want to be a good man
I make new resolutions every day
I start off with the best of intentions
Til my lack of follow-through gets in the wayRefrain:
Oh Oh I sin on Saturday
I repent on Sunday
Then I tell myself I won't procrastinate on Monday
Tuesday I do like I should
Wednesday I do pretty good
Thursday Paul drops the ball, then I backslide on FridayI'm always planning for the future
I've set some lofty goals inside my mind
Someday soon I'll put the wheels in motion
But right now I can't seem to find the timeRefrainI have unlimited potential
Mama said that I was born to win
My picture's on her refrigerator
She's hoping I won't let her down againRefrain
Refrain
