Sanctified

Joshua Grey

If i wrote you down my promises would you keep em to yourself put em with your paintings on top of your bookshelf and if i told you i needed you would you say that isn't true you know i do

you say that i'm sanctified you're just terrified of being
alone
in your heart it may be true and i'm still in love with you but i gotta let you go

i still have the pictures the ones we took ourselves the kiss behind the fountain the sunset on the mountains i took em down

you say that i'm sanctified you're just terrified of being
alone
in your heart it may be true
and i'm still in love with you
but i gotta let you go

you say you'll fix the broken the heartbreak it hopeless you don't know how it felt but if you still have the pieces send them to me cause they're needed to give to someone else

you say you'll fix the broken
the heartbreak it hopeless

you don't know how it felt
but if you still have the pieces
send them to me cause they're needed
to give to someone else

and you say that i'm sanctified you're just terrified of being
alone
in your heart it may be true
and i'm still in love with you
but i gotta let you go

you say that i'm sanctified
you're just terrified of being
alone
in your heart it may be true
and i'm still in love with you
but i gotta let you go

you say that i'm sanctified
you're just terrified of being
alone
in your heart it may be true
and i'm still in love with you
but i gotta let you go

you say that i'm sanctified
you're just terrified of being
alone
in your heart it may be true
and i'm still in love with you
but i gotta let you go

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/