

Are You True?

The New Amsterdams

Sending a sobering scent
It's all in my hands to repent
Spectacular sin takes discipline to stop
Ellis is hardly a fiend
It's achingly clear I can see
The offer is fair it's up in the air to drop
Are you true? Do you know where the world's gonna go?
I don't know if you do are you true?
Does anyone else have a thought?
Then that's all the time that we've got
The one with the cards is the only one you've forgot
Over and over again, the heretics seldom are friends
The profit is false
Believers are turned to salt it's their fault
Are you true? Do you know where the world's gonna go?
I don't know if you do are you true?
It seems clear, if you're fake there's no move I can make
I don't think that I'll choose are you true?
There's no way I can lose are you true?
