

Yellow Haired Woman

Waylon Jennings

Yellow haired woman good for nothing empty headed
Most lovely creature that I've seen
With lips that kiss with such a fiery stain
Many times I've dreamed of leaving my life behind knowin' all the while
I'm a victim of the smile of this yellow haired woman
[guitar + harmonica]
Yellow woman flows across this rich satin bed
Magnificent of perfect feature leaving nothing left unsaid
As I listen to her breathing suddenly I find no escape I'm weary kind
Who sets it up my mind it's this yellow haired woman
[guitar + harmonica]
Many times I've dreamed of leaving my life behind knowin' all the while
I'm a victim of the smile of this yellow haired woman
