

Fuck What You Think

RZA

Yo, yo, fuck what you think
Fuck what you think It's about what you know, so fuck what you think
Twenty-one and over to drink
Nineteen and over to fuck
Sixteen and over to Pat
A twelve year old kid got bucked The sweet premium classic lay your ass flat as a mattress
Smack your head off the axis, the rhyme facious
Silencer on the tech-nine shot got your pillow wet
All your bitch say was the black silhouette Of the dark Ninja, Lion King of the jungle, Simba
Cut the roof to your family tree, timber
Me and Dr. Strange in the black reign smokin' chimneys
Fat Cappadonna tape stuck inside my Benzi The blue coats is comin', the red coats is comin'
The fed coats is comin', the wet heads is comin'
I heard to Dirt was up in the Riker's fuckin' a female
CEO, Wu-Tang keep it on the D-low Third eye is a trillion million watt gigabyte
Insight like bright, can't find this on your website
Everglow superior to your inferior material
Verbal serial murder, givin' you pussycat's venereal Injections, lethal injections, ran from house
Left the dictionary, pictionary, the non-fictionary
Ruler Zig-Zag-Zig Allah, puzzle like jigsaw
Struggled for charisma, yo It's about what you know, so fuck what you think
Nineteen and over to fuck
It's twenty-one and over to drink
Sixteen and over to Pat
A twelve year old kid got bucked Aiyyo, rock head niggaz who grab mics for the first time
Get fronted on majorly once the God slides in
On the scene, love-love in the place to be
All-American lyrics, the top choice in this rap market from Now y'all the way to England
'Cuz my click be jinglin' under Wu-Tang Productions
That's quick to sell a million, then bounced on tour outta state
Rap fiends was trapped in cells like hot cakes Faster than the rate of the Earth travel
Which is one-thousand-thirty-seven and one third miles per a hour
And peace to the God Power for never fallin' for nothin' less Than a hundred grands and rap with rubberbands placed in Golden suitcases, slitted across the table
To walk the dogs in the nine-eight, the nine-eight Yo, I build with the great minds of Africa
RZA, Star Trek Voyager, Killah Hillside Strangler
Captured you in inside thirty-six gas chambers
North American, Arabian, half-tone dark Indian 9th Prince convinces his enemies to kill themselves

Like Dr. Kavorkian, travel like razor satellites
Prepared for battles, devils try to raid the castles
Got tackled by the rebels, the plate in my head is heavy metal Lyrical chain reaction, deadly instruments, run for symantecs
The international civil war assassins
Geological, biochemical, camouflaged nuclear apostles
Sounds possible, 'cuz regardless visual
English grammar, mental examiner
I shock the world like the death of Princess Diana
Reverse psychology on technology, accept no apologies
The penalty is to cut off your arms and feet
Poetry teachers are speakers seepin' through the speakers
My fans will become die hard listeners, plus ear bleeders
Fuck what you think
Fuck what you think
It's about what you know, so fuck what you think
Twenty-one and over to drink
And nineteen and over to fuck
Sixteen and over to Pat
A twelve year old kid got bucked
So fuck what you think, it's about what you know
Twenty-one and over to drink
And nineteen and over to fuck
Sixteen and over to Pat
A twelve year old kid got bucked
Word up, fuck what you think
Word up, yo
