Modern Baseball

You're a love searching urchin, worst part you're not one of a kind

You're the beat of my heart when I'm up late at night

You're the "baby why haven't we kissed yet"

You are, all I see is a sunset and your silhouette You're just another girl and I'm just another boy

I'll try to make you fall for me but all you'll say is

"Don't enjoy our time together because it's short" I'm a love searching urchin, worst part I'm not one of kind

I am, most likely to get lost in those eyes

Baby, I'll just g-g-give it all

If you just stay monogamous

We are love searching urchins, worst part we're not one of a kind

We are, stuck in lust not each others minds

We are, way too young for this

You know you're right fuck it let's just give in

You're just another girl and I'm just another boy

I'll try to make you fall for me but all you'll say is

"Don't enjoy our time together because it's short" You're just another girl and I'm just another boy

You'll bash your lips against mine and all I'll say is

"Don't enjoy our time together because it's short"
