Barefoot And Crazy

Jack Ingram

The clouds are partin', the summer suns startin'
To burn down on that river
My baby's waitin', I got the Chevy shakin'
I'm blazin' a trail to get her, there she isShe's got her shades on and man, she's lookin' strong
Mine all mine for the weekend
The coolers loaded down, we're headed outta town
Jumpin' off the deep endGoin' barefoot and crazy, me and my baby
Back flip off the flip right bridge
Double dog, dare me and I will Meet me at the bottom with a cool wet kissShe's rockin' that bikini top
My hearts skippin' like a rock across that water
Don't ever wanna stop
Goin' barefoot and crazyThe sun is droppin', we got the fire poppin'
And it's lightin' up her blue eyes
With a little bit of luck it'll heat things up
And we'll be lovin' in the moonlightBreak out my old guitar, sing fishin' in the dark
Baby, get ready
We'll take a little sip, we'll take a little dip
And sleep in the bed of my ChevyGoin' barefoot and crazy, me and my baby
Just me and her and the man in the moon
Drinkin' on a cold bud brew
Mornin's gonna come way too soonWe'll wake up and do it all again
Wishin' it would never end
Anybody asks where we've been
Tell 'em barefoot and crazyBarefoot and crazy, me and my baby
I did a back flip off the flip right bridge
Double dog dared me and I did
Met me at the bottom with a cool wet kissShe's rockin' that bikini top
My hearts skippin' like a rock across that water
Don't ever wanna stopGoin' barefoot and crazy
Don't ever wanna stop, don't ever wanna stop
Goin' barefoot and crazyGoin' barefoot and crazy
Don't ever wanna stop, don't ever wanna stop
Goin' barefoot and crazy, goin' barefoot and crazy
