

Brothers

Tanlines

Minimal big mistakes, and the last one:
In the car or the store, you didn't ask for it.
Take your time, take the place, and react.
Does it in my mind set the pace?
And rewind to them. (x4)

Take a chance, make a choice, you couldn't not look.
Indecision overload is only chance figures.
Change my mind, make mistakes, and put it past them.
Raise the bar, set the course.
And rewind to them. (x4)

You're just the same as you ever were.
You fighting, no wonder why it makes no sense.
I'm just the same as I ever been,
But I'm the only one who doesn't notice it.
See me through the front porch.
Sure, I want more.
Off the cuff, doesn't measure.
Got a front door.
Take the stairs, make mistakes.
Just reroute for them.
On the spot, don't pretend.
And rewind to them. (x4)

You're just the same as you ever were.
You fighting, no wonder why it makes no sense.
I'm just the same as I ever been,
But I'm the only one who doesn't notice it.
Yeah, yeah ah hey, oh. (x8, 4 behind next)
You're just the same as you ever were. (x4)
