Vista

Shugo Tokumaru

Want, want, want (you)Stretching out before my eyes
Are riches a ruler requires
Regal shimmer, blinding shine
But hollowness when all this is mine
Through all the shallow depths, I had to wade
This could've become my darkest hour
Enough days I've lived in the shadeI see harbor, ooh ooh ooh
Is it underneath the tide vista?
High my land on frozen soil
Does my stronghold scare you, wicked of mind?
Can you follow me and I'll do if you take it all
Taste the salty end, up in the finish lineImprobable place unknown
Untouched and all undestroyed
Here I let my armies grow
Our voices will loudly crowEvery minute in the deadly current
Never believed to cure the doubt
I want the world rushing through my veinsI see harbor, ooh ooh ooh
Is it underneath the tide vista?
High my land on frozen soil
Does my stronghold scare you, wicked of mind?
Can you follow me and I'll do if you take it all
Taste the salty end, up in the finish lineWant only you to take me all! [want (me), use, take all (me)]
I want you to take all! (me)Can you follow me through a second round?
Can you taste the pale white salts against your tongue?I see harbor, ooh ooh ooh
Is it underneath the tide vista?
High my land on frozen soil
Does my stronghold scare you, wicked of mind?
Can you follow me and I'll do if you take it all
Taste the salty end, up in the finish line
