

Where Do I Go

Jean B. Gerbier

Where do I go

There was romance in the past, joy and consolation in the present. Oh, someone told me, you plan on leaving me in the future. The romance is not over, let's give love a second chance to progress successfully.

Chorus

Where do I go? If you leave me today.
Where do I go? Monetary gain doesn't honor love.
Where do I go? What do I do ooh.
Where do I go? Angels will keep me going on and on.

Had you known in the past, now romantic our love would progressively turn out to be. You wouldn't have to take advice from someone else, that would deliberately end up our relationship.
