Under Control

Ellie Goulding

I'll never forget that feeling,
When I watched you disappear.When you made me stop believing
I could fight away the fear.Now the smoke has cleared, and the end is near,
It was my illusion.
Like a broken dream, I was incomplete,
But your love was never missing key.I feel like I'm dreaming again.
I feel like I'm seeing again.
I feel like I'm breathing again.I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol.Now all that's real is faded,
Like a car into the night.
Like a pain-killer I take it,
And I watch the world ignite.Now the smoke has cleared, and the end is near,
It was my illusion.
Like a broken dream, I was incomplete,
But your love was never missing key.I feel like I'm dreaming again.
I feel like I'm seeing again.
I feel like I'm breathing again.I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control.I got it under control.I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,I feel like I'm dreaming again.
I feel like I'm seeing again.
I feel like I'm breathing again.I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control-ol-ol,
I got it under control.I got it under control.
