

My Religion

Troy Baker

Put the needle down.
She came in through the window.
Spinnin' round and round.
This is how I wanna feel.
And the sound fills my soul like a sun shining through my window.
Let it flow through my veins.
This is my religion.
This is my religion.I'll put the needle down.
The sky is a landfill.
Oh, it spits us to the ground.
Until we burst in through a stereo.
Yeah the sound fills my soul like a sun
Shining through my window.
Let it flow through my veins.
This is my religion.
This is my religion.Oh! Oh oh!As I bow my head to pray, may the verses that they say fall like wine to my lips.
This is My Religion.
