

My Child (remixed by Alex Callier)

Hooverphonic

Please come back to me
My child
Things weren't meant to be
Without tears we cry
Even though we new
It did strike
But this ain't no dream
No, this is life And all the colours fade
Leaving nothing more
Than a black and white shade on an empty
Shore, a part is gone
And sure we do long
But black and white is so much more than nothing
Oh nothing, at all Please come back to me
Please come back to me
My child
Yes, we do control a lot
Yes, we do control too much
Overwhelmed by disbelieve
Left in shock
Still our disbelieve is the Remaining lock And all the colours fade
Leaving nothing more
Than a black and white shade on an empty
Shore, a part is gone
And sure we do long
But black and white is so much more than nothing
Oh nothing, at all
