Unloving You

Alex Aiono

I wish I could unsay the words I said
I wish I could unsee the videos in my head
And if I, could untie the knot andUnhear the promises that you forgot
Would I do that?
Would I?I wish I could unkiss your dirty mouth
I wish I could unbite the peach and just spit it out
Girl, if I could undo the shame of Ignoring my friends who told me "You're insane"
Would I do that?
Would I?
Unloving you
Is the hardest thing to do
Wish I could find a way to be unlove with you
Unloving you
You're all I wanna lose
But every night I'm closer to the bitter truth
I just can't unlove you
Maybe I can't unlove youI wish I could unfeel your skin
I wish I could undrown these feelings and learn to swim
Oh, if I could unlock the gate and unlight the fire that you put in me
Would I do that?
Would I?
Unloving you
Is the hardest thing to do
Wish I could find a way to be unlove with you
Unloving you
You're all I wanna lose
But every night I'm closer to the bitter truth
I just can't unlove you
Maybe I can't unlove youFalling
I can't help myself, I keep on fallingUnloving you
Is the hardest thing to do
Wish I could find a way to be unlove with you
Unloving you
You're all I wanna lose
But every night I'm closer to the bitter truth
I just can't unlove you
I just can't unlove you
