

What I Saw

Ernest Lane

There's one room
There's one light
There's one night
    In the fire
    In the pain
    In the wire
    This from me
    This one lie
    That seems right
    Time can't climb
        It can't be
        It can't see
        I see to be right
    I fall down tonight
    I go to hell to be what I sell
    Falling again is such a welcome end
    Can the end of today be more than tonight
    Echoes of these far reaching sights
Stuck with the pain of knowing you should have tried
    Give me your hands
    And we'll never die
        This love song
        It sits wrong
        It means jack
    The time's right to be wrong
        All night long
        I feel good
        I feel so far away
        This is mine
    It could be anyday
    I saw what I saw
    I call up a man
        Distance is what gets me right in
I had a hand in everyone losing their place
        Never must stop
        It's stealing my heart
A moment to squeeze begging on its knees
I know I'll never be right beyond tonight
    Give me your hands

And we'll never die
