Madi Don't Leave

PlayRadioPlay!

It takes a lot to phase me
I'm pretty stable, pretty sane
But I'm looking at my future
And God, do I have to lose her?We share conversations
On how we're all just floating
Through space and nothing matters
I'm looking for a patternIs it possible to say? Baby, let's run away
To the East coast or Seattle, Corpus or San Marcos
I've got a credit card and a reliable car
Let's drive to PennsylvaniaMadi dear, can't we just disappear
And take our chances
On a teenagers' romances?
Put our money where our mouth isMadi dear, can't we just disappear
And take our chances
On a teenager's romances?
Put our money where our mouth isIt takes a lot to make me pretty angry, very sad
Now I'm looking towards the outcome
There must some hidden reasonIs there anyway you could change schools and stay
Up here in Fort Worth?
'Cause you're what I look forI've got a hopeless crush
And maybe that don't mean much to you
But I'm hoping, this can't keep goingMadi dear, can't we just disappear
And take our chances
On a teenagers' romances?
Put our money where our mouth isMadi dear, can't we just disappear
And take our chances
On a teenagers' romances?
Put our money where our mouth isI've got a credit card and a reliable car
Let's drive to PennsylvaniaMadi dear, can't we just disappear
And take our chances
On a teenagers' romances?
Put our money where our mouth isMadi dear, can't we just disappear
And take our chances
On a teenagers' romances?
Put our money where our mouth isMadi dear, can't we just disappear
And take our chances
On a teenagers' romances?
Put our money where our mouth isMadi dear, can't we just disappear
On a teenagers' romances?
