Wink

Little Dragon

Your head aches and youve had no rest
This day's been a one long test
Years pass too fast, have to stop
Like an angel she appearsCreated out of air
And all you troubles, all your fears
Had blown awayCause she winks at you
You feel your legs shake
You blow a kiss back
Then time stops until she turns her backThe swarm of heads turn around
And cross the street, oh
Waves of electricity, you feel the heat
You start walking fast
And blindly youre like an ant in a stackAnd years pass too fast
Yet in your dreams, you knowCause she winks at you
You feel your legs shake
You blow a kiss back
Then time stops until she turns her back
