Ode To Solitude

Him

Easy on the eyes
Uneasy on the heart
Sew my wrists shut
Sew my wrists shut with hope
Straining through the lights
Shining bright
I dare you to dream this
And I dare you to dream this gone
What I wanna know is which Makes you smile less?
Here's to the pain
The light of the oncoming train
Come on
Ode to solitude in chains
Here's to the pain
As always Heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Ode to solitude in chains
Wrap the scars of the heart
Bruised and torn
Loosen the noose, love
Loosen the noose with love
What I wanna know is why
You keep me hanging
Here's to the pain
The light of the oncoming train
Come on
Ode to solitude in chains
Here's to the pain
As always Heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Ode to solitude in chains
If I should fail
(If I fail)
To stay
(To stay)
Remember not to forget this feeling we have (What if you fail)
I fail

(Want you to stay)
Please pretend it never happened, baby
Here's to the pain
The light of the oncoming train
Come on
Ode to solitude in chains
Here's to the pain
As always Heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Here's to the pain
The light of the oncoming train
Come on
Here's to the pain
As always Heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Ode to solitude
Ode to solitude
Ode to solitude
Ode to solitude
