Fake It

Seether

Who's to know if your soul will fade at all
The one you sold to fool the world
You lost your self-esteem along the way
YeahGood god your comin' up with reasons
Good god your dragging it out
Good god its the changing of the seasons
I feel so raped
So follow me downAnd just fake it if your out of direction
Fake it if you don't belong
Fake it if you feel like a infection
Woah your such a fuckin' hypocriteAnd you should know that the lies wont hide your falls
No sense in hiding all of yours
You gave up on your dreams along the way
YeahGood god your comin' up with reasons
Good god your dragging it out
Good god its the changing of the seasons
I feel so raped
So follow me downAnd just fake it if your out of direction
Fake it if you don't belong
Fake it if you feel like a infectionWoah your such a fuckin' hypocriteWhoah whoahI can fake with the best of anyone
I can fake with the best of em all
I can fake with the best of anyone
I can fake it allWho's to know if your soul will fade at all
The one you sold to fool the world
You lost your self-esteem along the way
YeahGood god your comin' up with reasons
Good god your dragging it out
Good god its the changing of the seasons
I feel so raped
So follow me downAnd just fake it if your out of direction
Fake it if you don't belong
Fake it if you feel like a infection
Woah your such a fuckin' hypocriteFake it if your out of direction
Fake it if you don't belong
Fake it if you feel like a infection
Woah your such a fuckin' hypocrite
