The Night Pat Murphy Died

Great Big Sea

Oh, the night that Paddy Murphy died Is a night, I'll never forget

Some of the boys got loaded drunk

And they ain't got sober yetWell, I said some of the boys got loaded drunk

And they ain't got sober yet

Well, as long as a bottle was passed around every man was feelin' gay

But O'Leary came with the bagpipes, some music for to playThat's how they showed their respect for Paddy

Murphy

That's how they showed their honor and their pride

They said, it was a sin and shame and they winked at one another

Every drink in the place was full the night Pat Murphy diedMrs. Murphy sat in the corner pouring out her grief Kelly and his gang came tearing down the street

They went into an empty room and a bottle of whiskey stole

Put the bottle with the corpse to keep that whiskey coldThat's how they showed their respect for Paddy Murphy

That's how they showed their honor and their pride

They said, it was a sin and shame and they winked at one another

Every drink in the place was full the night Pat Murphy diedAbout two o'clock in the morning after emptying the

Jug

Doyle rolls up the ice box lid to see poor Paddy's mug

We fixed the clock so Mrs. Murphy couldn't tell the time

And at a quarter after two we argued it was nineThat's how they showed their respect for Paddy Murphy

That's how they showed their honor and their pride

They said, it was a sin and shame and they winked at one another

Every drink in the place was full the night Pat Murphy died, goThey stopped the wheel of the hearse outside

Sundance Saloon

All went in at half past eight and staggered out at noon

Went up to the graveyard, so holy and sublime

Found out when they got there, they'd left the corpse behindThat's how they showed their respect for Paddy

Murphy

That's how they showed their honor and their pride

They said, it was a sin and shame and they winked at one another

Every drink in the place was full, the night Pat Murphy diedOh, the night that Paddy Murphy died is a night, I'll never forget

Some of the boys got loaded drunk and they ain't been sober yet

As long as a bottle was passed around, every man was feelin' gay

O'Leary came with the bagpipes, some music for to playThat's how they showed their respect for Paddy Murphy

That's how they showed their honor and their pride

They said, it was a sin and shame and they winked at one another

Every drink in the place was full the night Pat Murphy died

Oh, every drink in the place was full the night Pat Murphy died
