

Shadow (Acoustic Version)

Austin Mahone

You walk into the room
So perfect but unaware
Making you stop and stare
Every time I heard he broke your heart
Can I just fix you girl
Show you a different world, oh
I take you anywhere
I push you on a throne
I lay down my heart I swear
And I'll make sure that you'll never be alone
Only my shadow knows
How I feel about you
Only my shadow goes
Where I dream of you and me
Should I go or wait
Is it too soon too late
Only my shadow knows
I've been loving you so long
And now that I got the chance
I see you need to dance on your own
So I wait another day
Maybe another year I'm gonna be right here oh
I take you anywhere
I push you on a throne
I lay down my heart I swear
And I'll make sure that you'll never be alone, alone
Only my shadow knows
How I feel about you
Only my shadow goes
Where I dream of you and me
Should I go or wait
Is it too soon too late
'Cause only my shadow knows
I wish I could say all these words
All these things that your heart never heard, yay
But I saw a pain in your eye and it's in my lips
Only my shadow knows
How I feel about you
Only my shadow goes
Where I dream of you and me
Should I go or wait
Is it too soon too late
Only my shadow knows, ay
Only my shadow knows, oh oh oh
Na hoo, na hoo

Only my shadow knows
