Adrenaline

Pistol Grip

A neddle in the eyes, adrenaline
We're falling from the skies, adrenaline
Beginning of an era
Kow that everbody dies, adrenalineOnce upon a time someone died for my sins
And now I know his name it's adrenaline
Burning up my skin
Ripping from within
I can hear the brutal snap of my bonesI don't wanna be mediocrity, flying off the edge and flying off the handle
Never gonna lose my adrenaline lineAdrenalize my veins now I break through the door
Infection of my brain as I'm chilled to the core
Heart is cold and sore
Grab it off the floor
I can hear the brutal snap of my bones
One more jump, one more high, one more pump, one more dive
One last shot, one last cry, no more sotps, one last rideWhat's sacred to me is the rush of freefall
Swimming through my veins as I'm bouncing off the walls
Grab a toe tag
Tell me I've gone mad
I can hear the brutal snap of my bonesI don't wanna be mediocrity, flying off the edge and flying off the handle
Never gonna lose my adrenaline line
