Forgotten Songs

For as long as I knew about the things they say, yeah
I've wondered how long they've been that way
They dont even know just what they need for themselves
I felt I knew at the age of twelve, yeahNobody knows my pain, no one sings in the rain
Nobodys hummin' forgotten song, no
No one really belongsThey say a real man can show how he feels
But when I try I just keep spinning my wheels
Something tells me I could be wrong, yeah
Lets sing together to the forgotten songNobody knows my pain, no one sings in the rain
Nobodys hummin' forgotten song, no
No one really belongsAs I walk along I slip
And wonder where I went a stray
But Im gonna find my wayWhile we sing forgotten songs
Remembering where we went wrong
Were gonna find our wayYeah, we'll find it, find myself my wayNobody knows my pain, no one sings in the rain
Nobodys hummin' forgotten song, no
Nobody knows my pain
Nobodys hummin' forgotten song, no
No one really belongs
