

The Ugly Truth

Matthew Sweet

You don't want to die
But the living gets you down
We want you to act like nothing's wrong
Even though you heard a sound And then you're ripped right out of the ground
Like a fuckin' root
No you simply cannot hide
From the ugly truth You feel you must be wise
'Cause you could find yourself
Among a sea of smiling faces
It's a way, I've never felt Yeah, it kinda flies right into my face
And out the other side
Oh, the ugly truth leaves nothing to decide
The ugly truth makes everyone of us a liar, ugly
