Breezy

The Boxing Lesson

Are you ready?
Are you ready?I get shoppin' sprees off the heezy
I get dough to blow, please believe me
Don't want the one on one, take it easy
You're just the jump-off, I'm his breezyI'm the one who knows him the best
I'm his one and only, nothin' less
You don't wanna take it there, don't you see?
He told me he loves me, calls me his breezyLet me break it down, break it down
I got it on lock and I think you better stop
I heard you been checkin' for my boo
Who do you think he is? Busy givin' your best shot?But you couldn't get a call back and even after all that Caught you at the mall for a throwback
That's big pimpin' but you wouldn't listen, he's mine
Not yours, better fall backI get shoppin' sprees off the heezy
I get dough to blow, please believe me
Don't want the one on one, take it easy
You're just the jump-off, I'm his breezyI'm the one who knows him the best
I'm his one and only, nothin' less
You don't wanna take it there, don't you see?
He told me he loves me, calls me his breezyNow I'ma let you know to your face, you need a hit the brakes
You're about to make a major mistake
I'm gonna call you out, no doubt, let me spell it out
Baby you ain't nothin' but a fake'Cause I know what you want and you ain't gotta front
So go ahead and pull another stunt
Remember that it's me that he loves
All he's thinkin' of, I'm the only one that he wantsI get shoppin' sprees off the heezy
I get dough to blow, please believe me
Don't want the one on one, take it easy
You're just the jump-off, I'm his breezyI'm the one who knows him the best
I'm his one and only, nothin' less
You don't wanna take it there, don't you see?
He told me he loves me, calls me his breezy'Cause what we have is so real, it's more than just dollar bills
This livin' lavish wouldn't matter if I didn't have his heart
Sorry shorty, he's mine, better luck next time
But baby, if u want it you can have it but I'll still be his girlI get shoppin' sprees off the heezy
I get dough to blow, please believe me
Don't want the one on one, take it easy
You're just the jump-off, I'm his breezyI'm the one who knows him the best
I'm his one and only, nothin' less

You don't wanna take it there, don't you see?
He told me he loves me, calls me his breezyI get shoppin' sprees off the heezy
I get dough to blow, please believe me
Don't want the one on one, take it easy
You're just the jump-off, I'm his breezyI'm the one who knows him the best
I'm his one and only, nothin' less
You don't wanna take it there, don't you see?
He told me he loves me, calls me his breezyBreezy
