Duct Tape My Heart

Freezepop

i was feeling sad and lonely and my heart was torn in 2 i went out to see a show that's the night that i met youyou're so dreamy, you're so sweet swept completely off my feet you duct-taped my heart back together i think that this could last I know that this will last forever you duct-taped my heart back togetherthe club was packed, the band was loud i held my breath as you came near you seemed to have something to say i leaned in close so i could hear a roll of duct tape in your hand "we have a show next saturday" you hung a flyer on the wall "will you come and see us play?"you're so dreamy, you're so sweet swept completely off my feet
i think that this could last
I hope that this will last
you duct-taped my heart back together I know that this will last foreverwe were walking in the rain and a hole was in my shoe you pulled some duct tape from your bag patched it up as good as new "that should keep you dry" you told me looking shyly in my eyes and our hands were almost touching that first kiss was a surpriseyou're so dreamy, you're so sweet
swept completely off my feet
i think that this could last
I know that this will last forever
