The Other Side

Alana Grace

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I found the poison under my skin,
Creeping in slowly, feeding everything.
I feel so close yet so far away
Staring at life; this prison of sheltering
It's killing me...I-I-I wanna break free from these walls and say
Goodbye-i-i to the feelings that I've known before.
I try-i-i to fight back the urge to hideaway
And let it, let it, let it open my eyes
To the other side.The glass is breaking; I'm not afraid.
The noise it's making is taking my breath away...
This water's cool, but I'm not alone
And something's moving underneath my feet...
It's sinking me...I-I-I wanna break free from these walls and say
Goodbye-i-i to the feelings that I've known before.
I try-i-i to fight back the urge to hideaway
And let it, let it, let it open my eyes
To the other sideOh-oh-oh-oh-oh-Floating away... on a star;
Passing through clouds and rose colors
Oh... starting over.
I'm never coming down...I-I-I (x2)It's killing me...
Just set me free...
Set me free!I-I-I wanna break free from these walls and say
Goodbye-i-i to the feelings that I've known before
I try-i-i to fight back the urge to hideaway
And let it, let it, let it come on inside.I-I-I wanna break free from these walls and say
Goodbye-i-i to the feelings that I've known before.
I try-i-i to fight back the urge to hideaway
And let it, let it, let it open my eyes
To the other side...Oh-oh-oh-ho-oh-oh-ohSkat humming
