Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Everything should be fine
You'll find things tend to stand in line
It's but a link in time
But I'm sure you'll let me try No one is sitting on fire
So long we're waiting on by Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times, I sang
Your loss wasn't mine
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times, I sang
Your lust was mine In your mind
Open (?)
In your mind
I will open (?)
I will open (?) No one is sitting on fire
So long we're waiting on (?)
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind You loved the times
I sang your lust was mine
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times
I sang your lust was mine
