BLU

[Verse 1]
Bow down, stand up it's our reality
You give me space to breathe
Bandage up all of my bitter bones
Sticks and stones and crystal balls have lost control

[Verse 2]
Now ground is up to rosy cheeks
Debate if you're so over me
Aching in between my silver tone
I can see your cards are faced up on the floor

[Chorus]
Time lapse in a dream as our bodies creep
Tiny talks through deep thoughts are everything
Vertigo spins up my walls, I lose the fall
I fall in arms of you
Time leaves me serene as your two lungs keep
The beat under the souls of my racing feet
Vertigo spins up my walls I lose the fall
I fall in arms of you

[Verse 3]
Slow down, I'm up to anything
If you're here standing next to me
Hand to hand palms up to cheekbones, oh
Bricks and basic tricks have crumbled long ago

[Verse 4]
Now ground stays up
I'm level on your steady chest to ever leave
Sleeping in between loud subtle chords
Trusting touch we silently slip out the door

[Chorus]
Time lapse in a dream as our bodies creep
Tiny talks through deep thoughts are everything
Vertigo spins up my walls, I lose the fall

I fall in arms of you
Time leaves me serene as your two lungs keep
The beat under the souls of my racing feet
Vertigo spins up my walls I lose the fall
I fall in arms of you

[Bridge]
I guess if I could give you any color, I'd give you blue
I've always loved that color and when I close my eyes
I see indigo and sapphire and wisdom in you
I feel scorpio and wildfires that brighten my youth
Hear echoes of empires from skies that we knew
I lose sorrows I'm inspired with you

[Chorus]
Time lapse in a dream as our bodies creep
Tiny talks through deep thoughts are everything
Vertigo spins up my walls, I lose the fall
I fall in arms of you
Time leaves me serene as your two lungs keep
The beat under the souls of my racing feet
Vertigo spins up my walls I lose the fall
I fall in arms of you
