Snow somewhere
Take it as it is
I could go slow
But I'd break all my bones
I can take on anything
I can take it all
I can take on anything
As long as I can see youAs long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
Standing in the ocean
Trying to avoid the waves
Searching for a smile
Nothing [?]
Nothing ever stays
In this life
I can take on anything
As long as I can see youAs long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
As long as I can see youStill I haven't found the bridge so
You are the only one I told
[?] the medicine
To stay alive
I was in the waves
I should break all my bones
Cause I can take on anything
I can take it all
I can take on anything
As long as I can see youAs long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
As long as I can see you
