Slow Down

Imany

Slow down
Take your time
It will be alright
If you decide to take it on the science
Take it easy
Take it easyOh slow down
Take your time
It will be alright
If you decide to take it on the science
Take it easy
Take it easyOh slow downAnd I understand
Why fazing a friend
It's so hard, sometimes
But guess what
You're not the only one
The door is shot
But so is your mind
[x2]Slow down
Take your time
It will be alright
If you decide to take it on the science
Take it easy
Take it easyOh slow down
Take your time
It will be alright
If you decide to take it on the science
Take it easy
Take it easyOh slow downBut let me explain you
Don't have to complain
Look at the bright side
Open your eyes
Along with your mind
It's not so bad
God is love and love is all aroundYou do the best you can Doesn't have to be grand
Open your arms
Now is the time
To get on with your life
Hold on

Mend your heart and enjoy the rideSlow down
Take your time
It will be alright
If you decide to take it on the science
Take it easy
Take it easyOh slow down
Take your time
It will be alright
If you decide to take it on the science
Take it easy
Take it easyOh slow down
