The Secret Handshake

the year was 1995
and i was too young to drive i felt stuck on the inside, of my life just livin' out my life through my TV, with all my favorite shows wanted my life to work out so easy, don't care if anybody knows but now I'm old enough to drive no one can keep me inside and i got the day on my mind its my life

Step By Step, these are Family Matters and why Boy Meets World, I
